Companions on a Journey Mending Hearts Center of Grieving Children

Providing support and hope on the path of healing for Children

Mending Hearts offers a safe, nurturing environment for children ages 5 – 18 to explore and address issues related to their loss. Children and teens are placed in age-appropriate peer support groups, and a caregivers group is offered at the same time.

- Becky Delong M.S.W. – Director of Mending Hearts brings a wealth of knowledge on Children's grief
- Brings experienced Children's Grief Support to our local area. Currently serves Hamilton, Fairfield, Oxford and Middletown Communities
- Adds trained facilitators specializing in Children and Teens Grief to CoJ
